IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, JOHN T. BROWN, who departed this life one year ago today.

Just one year ago today

Our dearly beloved was called away,

by his God whom he served and loved.

Yes, He summoned him to his home above.

Since he left us the days seem very long.

Even the birds seem to have lessened their song.

We miss his helpful hand, his smile and his cheer.

No longer in our home his dear voice do we hear.

That vacant chair can never be filled.

Our sorrow and grief shall never be stilled.

But now he is happy in Heaven we know.

For he was patient and good, serving God here below.

His sweet voice is hushed forever.

And his dear face we'll see, no never.

His memory around the hearts shall twine

Of we, who loved him, and were left behind.
